

BACCHUS MARSH FAMILY WINS A YEAR'S FREE SWIMMING LESSONS

22/07/2009

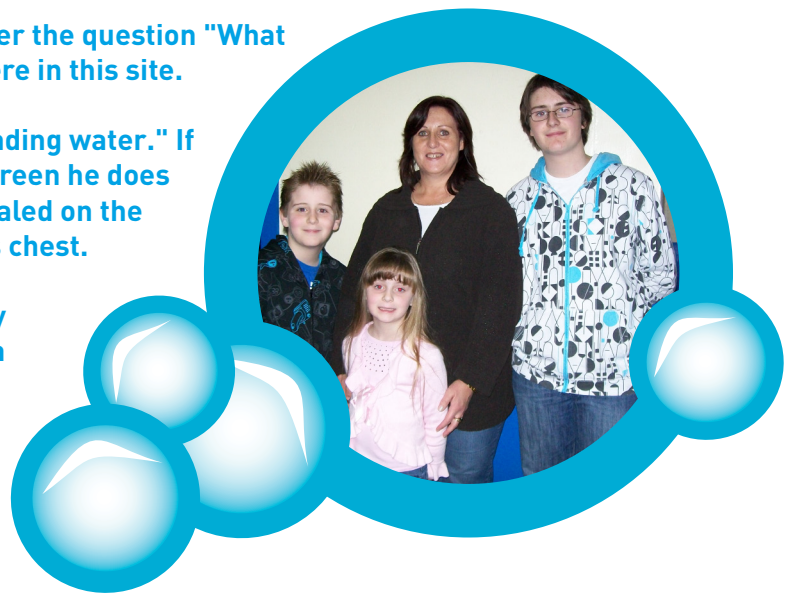

As part of our website launch, we offered the chance to win one year of swimming lessons to all of our valued clients.

To enter the draw you had to correctly answer the question "What does Swordy love?" The answer is somewhere in this site.

The answer is, of course, "Swordy loves treading water." If you click on Swordy in the top right of the screen he does some pretty cool moves. The answer is revealed on the fourth click, where his heart beats out of his chest.

It is great to see an enthusiastic, loyal family such as the Lords from Bacchus Marsh win a full year of FREE swimming lessons for one of their three children. They have been loyal clients since 1998.

CONGRATULATIONS!
